

Contents

Acknowledgements	5
Christel Stalpaert (Universiteit Gent: Belgium): Introduction	7
Christel Stalpaert (Universiteit Gent: Belgium): The Artistic Creative process, its Mythologising Effect and its Apparent Naturalness Called into Question: An Interview with Peter Greenaway	27
Judith Buchanan (Worcester College Oxford, UK): Catankerous Scholars and the Production of a Canonical Text: The Appropriation of Hieronymite Space in Prospero's Books	43
Michael Anderegg (University of North Dakota USA): Greenaway's Baroque Mise en scene at the Imaginative Centre of Shakespeare's The Tempest : a Hypertextual Recapitulation of the Rivalry between Ben Jonson and Inigo Jones?	101
Jacek Fabiszak (Adam Mickiewicz University, Poland): Elizabethan Staging and Greenawayan Filming in Prospero's Books	121
Chris Lawson (University of the West of England, UK): The Greenawayan Sensory Experience: The Interdependency of Image, Music, Text and Voice as Interconnected Networks of Knowledge and Experience	141
Elsie M. Walker (University of Sheffield, UK): The Aesthetic Construction of Musical Forms in Prospero's Books	161
Wilton Garcia (Universidade de Sao Paulo, Brazil): Art and Body: Intertextual Game Subjectivity in Prospero's Books	181
Bibliography	196
List of Plates	212
Notes on Contributors	216